Vice Admiral Fournet Takes Precautionary Measure to Insure Safety of Allied Vessels—Sets Time Limit for Compliance With Order.

London, Oct. 12.—Vice Admiral Dr.
Artigo du Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet in the Mediterranean, has presented an ultimatum to Greece, demanding that Greece hand
over the entire Greek fleet, except the armored cruiser Averoff and the battleships Lemnos and Kilkis, to the entente allies by 1 a. m. Wednesday.
Reuter's Athens correspondent says.

Demand also is made for the control
of the Piraeus-Larissa railway. "The minister of marine," the correspondent continues, "says Vice Admiral Founet's demands will be complied with
and that the fleet will be handed over
before the prescribed time."

"The demands were made as a precautionary measure to insure the safety of the allies' fleet."
Vice Admiral du Fournet demands
the dismantling of the Kilkis, Lemnos
and Averoff and the dismantling of
the forts on the seacoast, while the
two forts commanding the fleet's moorings are to be made over to the admiral.

The Greek navy consists of five battleships—the Kilkis, Lemnos, Psara, Spetsai and Hydra; one armored
cruiser, the Averoff; the coast defense
ship Basileus Georgios; the cruisers Helli and Nauarchos Mianhis; ten gun-boats, seventeen torpedo boat destroyers; nine torpedo boats, three submarines, and several transports and other craft.

Vodena, via Athens, Oct. 12.—North of the villages of Slivitz and Dobroveni, Southern Serbia, the Serbs have pierced the Bulgarian second line of defenses and captured 670 prisoners and eleven machine guns. They are attacking the Chukla Heights, whence they will be able to dominate the entrenched Palagonia plain before Monday.

Further northeast they are furiously bombarding the fortified mountain positions at Dobropolje, the first step toward the capture of Vetrenek.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—
Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys,
they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.
When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly.
At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.
Eat less meat, drink lots of water;
also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble
while it is only trouble.

Vice Admiral Fournet Takes Precau-

Allied Vessels—Sets Time Limit for Compliance With Order.

London, Oct. 12.—Vice Admiral Dr.
Artigo du Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet in the Mediterranean, has presented an ultimatum to Greece, demanding that Greece hand
over the entire Greek fleet, except the
armored cruiser Averoff and the battleships Lemnos and Kilkis, to the entente allies by 1 a. m. Wednesday.
Reuter's Athens correspondent says.

Demand also is made for the control
of the Piraeus-Larissa railway. "The
minister of marine," the correspondent continues, "says Vice Admiral Fournet's demands will be complied with
and that the fleet will be handed over
before the prescribed time.

"The demands were made as a precautionary measure to insure the safety of the allies' fleet."

Vice Admiral du Fournet demands
the dismantling of the Kilkis, Lemnos
and Averoff and the dismantling of
the forts on the seacoast, while the
two forts commanding the fleet's moorings are to be made over to the admiral.

The Greek navy consists of five bat-
tleships—the Kilkis, Lemnos, Psara, Spetsai and Hydra; one armored
cruiser, the Averoff; the coast defense
ship Basilissa Georgios; the cruisers Helli and Nasarchoos Mianlis; ten gun-boats, seventeen torpedo boat destroyers; nine torpedo boats, three submarines, and several transports and other
craft.

Is Woman's War Work Affecting Motherhood

(By United Press)

London, Oct. 12.—Is the great part that woman is playing in the labor of the nation affecting motherhood? The answer to this query, according to those interested in conservation of the race, will be given as the result of a big investigation set on foot here today.

The investigation, which is authorized by the government, is being conducted by the Women's Industrial Council. On account of the future activity of women workers after the war, the probe is designed to point out what trades, newly acquired by women, are most injurious to motherhood. Recommendations for beneficial legislation in favor of the future of the race will then be made.

"Our chief object is to approach impartially industrial occupations, both old and new, to find out whether the muscular action or the strains and stresses involved in certain processes have an effect on future child bearing of ordinary women workers," said Miss H. Taylor, head of the Industrial Council today.

Today's investigation is only one of many which will be launched in favor of England's future generations.

- * What is the most important attribute of a soldier?
- * Good teeth? No.
- * Good eyesight? No.
- * Good brains? No.
- * What then? Good teeth.
- * A soldier may have good feet, good eyesight, and good brains but if he has bad teeth, he can't eat. If he can't eat he can't march near enough to the enemy to see him and use his brains to fight him.
- * How does a soldier get good teeth? By having good teeth in childhood.
- * How do children keep good teeth? Through being taught by their mother how to keep their teeth clean and having their teeth looked after while they are growing. This makes good teeth for future soldiers.
- * It would seem then as though the first patriotic duty of a mother was to keep her child's teeth in good condition.
- * It is.

"GET ACQUAINTED" SOCIAL

Swedish Christian Bethany Church Entertained Wednesday Evening—Good Program

A delightful entertainment was given by the Swedish Christian Bethany church Wednesday evening to its members and friends, in the nature of a "Get-acquainted" social.

A very interesting program was given, refreshments were served and a very pleasant social hour enjoyed by all present. The church was comfortably filled with friends and members.

The program included congregational singing, Scripture reading and prayer, address of welcome by Rev. Theodore Clemens in which he pleaded for a more homelike feeling between the members and friends, urging them to get better acquainted with each other and extended a hearty welcome to all. There was a song by the choir, violin solo by Lester Bredenberg, which was very well rendered; a good recitation by Virgil Quarnstrom, and a song by the last confirmation class. John Soderlund gave a short talk on "God's Congregation." He said God's congregation is the Christian church and the different denominations and churches are branches of it. The program closed with a pleasing duet by Misses Beanie Bredenberg and Esther Fogelstrom.

$3,000 Prize Offer

One well-known dealer in speaking of the Ever Ready flash light contest today mentioned the fact that it is not only open to everybody but that everyone has an equal chance, as the name has to be a "made-up" word such as "Kodak", or "Uneda", or "Tarvia." Consequently, even a boy or girl may be fortunate enough to suggest a short, easily spoken word that may prove to be the $3,000 name.

The contest blanks which the dealer will distribute beginning Oct. 7th will give all the details. $3,000 is a great deal of money for one word, but the Ever Ready people expect to spend millions of dollars advertising the new word if they get the right suggestion. Perhaps some one in this city will get the $3,000 on Christmas day. The Electric Shop will give you full particulars.

WORLD'S FASHION NEWS

Lovely Dinner and Evening Frocks in Palest Mauve, Rose and Blue

Redfern has made this season some exceedingly lovely dinner and evening frocks of the palest mauve, rose, and blue crepe de chine, modeled after the costumes of ancient Greece, with tunics and draperies in classic style. One of these frocks is ornamented at the waist line with a girle of ivy leaves; another is girdled with silver cord and trimmed with silver lace.

Among the most interesting things in Beer's collection are the moyen age frocks girdled low and loosely about the hips with odd embroidery of beads, paillettes, tubular beads of crystal or jet, chenille and braid. Frocks of blue stuff are brightened with ruby embroidery. In fact, blue and red in various combinations are extensively used in Beer's collection. Very pretty also are several frocks of black embroidered with sapphire blue.

Polret's new models are most interesting because long service in the trenches has limited the total number of them in the whole year to about twenty. Several of his most recent productions show charming collars which masquerade in the form of scarfs, resembling in form the knitted mufflers with which everyone is familiar. A soldierly coat of oxford suede cloth which buttons at the front with large bright yellow bone buttons, has a scarf collar of the material of the coat itself, lined with one of the bright printed silks sacred to Polret. At the end of the scarf, which is wound around the throat and thrown over one shoulder, this gay lining shows.

A suit of navy-blue serge with ruffles at the bottom of the sleeves and three at the bottom of the coat, has a scarf collar of Scotch plaid, which winds around the throat and is allowed to escape in a fringed end over the left shoulder.

Two contrasting types of shoes will be adopted for street wear this winter. There is first, the low-heeled shoe which has not the broad toe which one usually finds on this type

DENTAL PREPAREDNESS

- (J. S. Public Health Service)
- What is the most important attribute of a soldier?
- Good teeth? No.
- Good eyesight? No.
- Good brains? No.
- What then? Good teeth.
- A soldier may have good feet, good eyesight, and good brains but if he has bad teeth, he can't eat. If he can't eat he can't march near enough to the enemy to see him and use his brains to fight him.
- How does a soldier get good teeth? By having good teeth in childhood.
- How do children keep good teeth? Through being taught by their mother how to keep their teeth clean and having their teeth looked after while they are growing. This makes good teeth for future soldiers.
- It would seem then as though the first patriotic duty of a mother was to keep her children's teeth in good condition.
- It is.

"GET ACQUAINTED" SOCIAL

Swedish Christian Bethany Church Entertained Wednesday Evening—Good Program

A delightful entertainment was given by the Swedish Christian Bethany church Wednesday evening to its members and friends, in the nature of a "Get-acquainted" social.

The program included congregational singing, Scripture reading and prayer, address of welcome by Rev. Theodore Clemens in which he pleaded for a more home-like feeling between the members and friends, urging them to get better acquainted with each other and extended a hearty welcome to all. There was a song by the choir, violin solo by Lester Bredenberg, which was very well rendered; a good recitation by Virgil Quarnstrom, and a song by the last confirmation class. John Soderlund gave a short talk on "God's Congregation." He said God's congregation is the Christian church and the different denominations and churches are branches of it. The program closed with a pleasing duet by Misses Bessie Bredenberg and Esther Fogelstrom.

$3,000 Prize Offer

One well-known dealer in speaking of the Ever Ready flash light contest today mentioned the fact that it is not only open to everybody but that everyone has an equal chance, as the name has to be a "made-up" word such as "Kodak," or "Unedea," or "Tavla." Consequently, even a boy or girl may be fortunate enough to suggest a short, easily spoken word that may prove to be the $3,000 name.

The contest blanks which the dealer will distribute beginning Oct. 7th will give all the details. $3,000 is a great deal of money for one word, but the Ever Ready people expect to spend millions of dollars advertising the new word if they get the right suggestion. Perhaps some one in this city will get the $3,000 on Christmas day. The Electric Shop will give you full particulars.

WORLD'S FASHION NEWS

Lovely Dinner and Evening Frocks in Palest Mauve, Rose and Blue

Redfern has made this season some exceedingly lovely dinner and evening frocks of the palest mauve, rose, and blue crepe de chine, modeled after the costumes of ancient Greece, with tunics and draperies in classic style. One of these frocks is ornamented at the waist line with a girdle of ivy leaves; another is girdled with silver cord and trimmed with silver lace.

Among the most interesting things in Beer's collection are the moyen age frocks girdled low and loosely about the hips with odd embroidery of beads, paillettes, tubular beads of crystal or jet, chenille and braid. Frocks of blue stuff are brightened with ruby embroidery. In fact, blue and red in various combinations are extensively used in Beer's collection. Very pretty also are several frocks of black embroidered with sapphire blue.

Poiret's new models are most interesting because long service in the trenches has limited the total number of them in the whole year to about twenty. Several of his most recent productions show charming collars which masquerade in the form of scarfs, resembling in form the knitted mufflers with which everyone is familiar. A soldierly coat of oxford suede cloth which buttons at the front with large bright yellow bone buttons, has a scarf collar of the material of the coat itself, lined with one of the bright printed silks sacred to Poiret. At the end of the scarf, which is wound around the throat and thrown over one shoulder, this gay lining shows.

FOREIGN ALLIANCES

There has been much discussion in the past two years of the possibility of a league or alliance of neutral nations to compel belligerents to respect neutral rights. It has been urged, both here and abroad, that the United States should take the lead in organizing such a league. Only a few days ago the premier of Sweden made a public statement evidently intended to invite such action.

The unofficial response of our state department was to the effect that the United States would continue adhering to its established policy, long ago laid down by Washington, of "no entangling alliances." Most Americans seem unwilling to sacrifice our traditional isolation even for so salutary a purpose as lining up the peaceful world in support of international law. It is felt that, as the strongest neutral power, it is sufficient for us to stand as the spokesman of that law, leaving the smaller neutrals to follow our example without our being in any way bound to them.

That is no doubt the wisest policy for the present. And yet it is becoming evident to most progressive thinkers that we cannot remain permanently in our isolation, that we may soon have to join our fortunes definitely with some other power or group of powers. It is well to play a lone hand while the war lasts, to avoid snares; but after the war we shall need partners, if we are to make sure of our own future peace and the peace of the world.

A change of policy is foreshadowed in the utterances of American statesmen and writers of all parties. The idea of a league of nations to enforce peace has the support of both the big presidential candidates, and of both ex-presidents. It is a foregone conclusion that if there is any federation of powers formed to prevent war, the United States will belong to it and take an active part in it.

That, of course, will mean the entrance of the United States, for the first time in its history, into a foreign alliance. It is against precedent; but so is the world-situation. It is against the letter of Washington's advice; but as was remarked the other day, Washington would probably look at the thing differently if he were alive today.

LOVE OF COUNTRY

Somehow or other, our idea of patriotism is all bound up with armies and great leaders. We begin early to teach public school children tales of the heroes of their country, of great battles and brave deeds. That's all very well, but there is more to patriotism than that.

A writer in the September bulletin of the Vermont free public library commission makes a good suggestion to librarians for arousing patriotism in the hearts of the youngsters. Go on teaching them about Washington and Lincoln, about Bunker Hill and all the rest of it. But don't stop there, and don't overdo that phase. Give the children at the same time, books that will tell them simply and delightfully about the flora and fauna of their own fields and forests. Teach them about our natural resources and encourage them to go out and explore their own yards or meadows or the city parks.

Love of country should be more than admiration for the great men who have worked and lived and died for it. There should be also an appreciation of its beauties, its trees and flowers, its birds and animal life, its possibilities for future development. That would be the beginning of a real desire to work toward fulfilling the promises of this great land. And that would be a genuine patriotism.

ITALIANS IN NEW DRIVE ON TRIESTE

Fresh Offensive Against Austrian Line Dislodges Foe.

TEUTON PORT AGAIN MENACED

Roumanians Put to Further Flight Along Transylvania Front—Fierce Fighting Between Bulgarians and Serbs Below Monastir.

London, Oct. 12.—The Italians again have taken the offensive against the Austrians in their endeavor to reach Trieste, Austria's chief port on the Adriatic.

At several points south and south-east of Gorizia the Italian forces made good progress and, in addition, took nearly 6,000 prisoners.

South of Gorizia the Austrian line was broken between Tobara and Verbolta, according to Rome, and on the Cirio front entrenchments between the Vipacco river and Hill 208 were captured. Here the town of Novavilla and a strong position around the northern part of the hill fell into the hands of the attackers. Trenches in the Trentino region also were won by the Italians and 530 Austrians were made prisoners.

Bavarians Cross Roumanian Border.

In Transylvania, the forces of the Teutonic allies are continuing their drive of the Roumanians along most all of the front. Bavarian troops which captured the Rothenthurm pass have now crossed the border into Roumania. According to Bucharest, which admits the retirement of the Roumanians around Kronstadt, fierce Teutonic attacks were repulsed south of Hermannstadt with heavy casualties to the attackers.

Berlin conceded the capture by the French of a German salient near Vermandovillers, south of the Somme river in France, and also by the British of first line trenches near Salby, north of the Somme.

Germans Enter Trenches.

Violent counter-attacks by the Germans on the newly captured positions of the French in the Chaulnes wood were repulsed. In the Vosges mountains the Germans invaded French trenches, but later were driven out.

On the Struma river in Greek Macedonia, the British have made a further advance, occupying the towns of Papalova and Prosenik, while the French have taken trenches on the heights west of Davedjill, which lies on the Green-Serbian border southwest of Dobran.

Fierce fighting is going on between the Bulgarians and the Serbs on the front below Monastir, the Bulgarians having received reinforcements. Berlin says that along the Ceria river and west of the Vardar entente allied attacks were repulsed.

GERMANS CUT WIRE AND TRAPPED FOE

Vienna, Oct. 12.—The recapture from the Roumanians of the Transylvanian city of Kronstadt is regarded here as having been due largely to the generalship and strategy of General von Falkenhayn, ably supported by Austro-Hungarian generals.

Von Falkenhayn was able to execute what is regarded as one of the most brilliant open field maneuvers of the war. Of the troops which assisted him special praise is given the Bavarians and the Hungarian Honveds.

The fact that the Austro-German forces were able to interrupt Roumanian telegraph and telephone communication at many points played an important part.

Telegraph lines were tapped and orders to the first Roumanian army fell into the hands of the Germans.

ALLIES AGAIN INVITE GREECE TO ENTER WAR

Athens, Oct. 12.—The entente allies again have offered to assist Greece in case she enters the war, but it is understood no new concessions have been made. It is learned that entente diplomatic circles of Athens advised the French and British chancelleries, who are charged by the other allied governments with the negotiations with Greece, to reply to King Constantine's informal proposals to depart from neutrality, made to the Greek ministers in London and Paris on Sept. 18.

German Casualties Total 3,556,018.

London, Oct. 12.—German casualties from the beginning of the war to the end of September were 3,556,018, according to an official British compilation as given out here. The statement says: "A report compiled from German official casualty list shows the total German casualties in September as 179,684, bringing up the totals since the war from the same source to 3,556,018."

Discuss Action in Railway Case

BY GEORGE G. HILL.
(Written for Republican National Committee.)

Has not President Wilson won the solid support of organized labor by his handling of the railway controversy and the 8-hour bill? When the republican managers contend that Mr. Wilson has not won the support of labor do they not imply that organized labor is ungrateful? These questions are asked so frequently that a reply is pertinent.

President Wilson has not won the solid support of organized labor by his course regarding the railway increase bill because:

(1) There is no solid labor vote. Men who labor differ just as widely in their political opinions as any other class of men, so there is no solid labor vote.

(2) In the railway affair Mr. Wilson did nothing whatever to shorten the working day of railway employees, even the small percentage in the railway brotherhoods. He merely secured for the brotherhood men an increase of pay, estimated at from 20 to 25 per cent. For the great mass of railway employees he secured nothing whatever.

(3) By surrendering the principle of arbitration, Mr. Wilson established a precedent which is more than likely to work great injury to hundreds of thousands of union men whose organizations are not sufficiently powerful to win simply by strikes, although they have in the past and would have continued to win justice, or a measure of justice, by arbitration. Every labor man knows that most of that which has been won, both as to better pay and improved conditions, has been won by enlisting the support of public opinion and then procuring an arbitration which resulted in an award which, if it did not give them full justice, at least made progress in that direction.

When Mr. Wilson discarded the arbitration method of determining whether the brotherhood men were entitled to more pay, he paved the way for employers all over the country to discard it, and many able labor men believe that, regardless of the immediate benefit to the brotherhoods, organized labor will suffer in the long run from the president's course.

Finally, by leading congress to fix a specific wage increase for the brotherhood men, Mr. Wilson has paved the way for congress to fix by law the wages of all workers for common carriers with the inevitable accompaniment of compulsory service.

The answer to the second is that there is grave question whether organized labor as a whole has anything to be grateful to Mr. Wilson for.

Two Centuries Five Cents Apart

(By United Press)

El Paso, Oct. 12.—Delegates to the International Irrigation Congress, International Farm Congress and International Soil-Products Exposition, which will be held here beginning Saturday, will be given an opportunity to contrast the civilization of the 20th century which they will find in El Paso with the civilization of the 16th century which they will find in Juarez, Mexico, just across the narrow thread of the Rio Grande.

On the one side they will find the pulsating life which is the dominant feature of up-to-date Americanism; on the other they will find men and women live as they lived in Christ's time, in houses built of bricks made of mud and straw; using crooked sticks for plows and bundles of brush for harrows, reaping their grain with sickles and threshing it on earthen floors of hardened mud over which herds of ponies or flocks of goats are kept in motion in order that their hard hoofs may separate the grain from the chaff.

El Paso is practically the only city in the world where a traveler may pass in so short a time for a nickel, into a foreign country where language, manners, customs, mode of dress and styles in architecture are so absolutely different from the American conceptions of those details of life.

AWAIT REPORT OF NAVAL OFFICIALS

Lansing Says U-Boat Decision Depends on Complete Data.

KNIGHT TO MAKE REPLY SOON

Neutrality Board Will Be Consulted Before Opinion Is Given—Government Is Making Thorough Investigation of Facts.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The policy of the United States regarding the recent U-boat raid off the New England coast will not be determined until much more complete information as to facts has been received. This was announced by Secretary Lansing after his return from a conference with President Wilson.

Although the Secretary declined to elaborate on his statement, other officials indicated much will depend on Rear Admiral Knight's forthcoming report on all the naval phases of the raid, particularly the steps taken to insure the safety of passengers.

Prepare for Future.

There was every evidence Secretary Lansing went to see the president more to discuss possible eventualities and to prepare against them, than with the idea of making a definite decision.

The secretary appeared in unusual good spirits on his return.

Officials here expect the report from Rear Admiral Knight, which will be based on the statements of officers on the relief flotilla of American destroyers at the scene of the raid off Nantucket, will be ready for consideration in a few days.

It is emphasized the government is making every effort to complete its inquiry as soon as possible, but it desires to avoid a hasty or ill-advised decision.

Whether the German commander took proper care for the safety of the persons he put into small boats from the attacked vessels is a question involving points on which officials believe there is no clear precedent.

Consult Neutrality Board.

Before any policy is determined, it is expected the opinion of the neutrality board, created at the beginning of the war to advise the state department, will be consulted.

The board was called into session immediately after the U-boat appeared on this side of the Atlantic and several meetings have been held since.

There was a meeting at Long Branch between James W. Gerard, American ambassador to Germany, and Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States. The American diplomat called upon the German.

Both said the visit was informal and no significance should be attached to it.

BRITISH CAUTIOUS AT U-BOAT SILENCE

New York, Oct. 12.—Although there was no news to indicate the German submarine U-53 is lurking in the Atlantic lanes there was evidence the British admiralty will proceed with caution in allowing British ships to depart from Atlantic coast ports.

Two British vessels, due to sail, did not leave.

Shipping circles heard that Admiral Montague Browning, in command of the British fleet at Halifax, has issued orders detaining the British merchant vessels in American ports until such time as it is deemed safe for them to depart.

Continued absence of advices indicating additional submarine activities, resulted in a reduction in marine insurance rates from the high mark struck Monday. Rates were quoted at 2 1/2 per cent.

NAVY KEPT BUSY PATROLLING COAST

Newport, R. I., Oct. 12.—The American navy is taking every precaution against the use of the American coast as a base of supplies for foreign submarines.

The destroyers McCall, Porter and Cummings have gone on a mysterious mission. Rear Admiral Knight, in command of this district, was asked if the boats were searching for a submarine base or looking up some foreign submarine tender.

"I cannot answer that," he said, "but we are letting no report of submarine bases or tenders pass by without investigation."

Canadian Soldiers Battle Police.

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 12.—A pitched battle between soldiers and the police occurred here, in which many shots were fired and the barracks of the mounted police were wrecked and set on fire. One soldier is known to have been seriously wounded. The city virtually is in the hands of the soldier mob.

"ANURICI" THE NEWEST DISCOVERY IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Doctor Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anurici" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anurici," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or even write Doctor Pierce for a free sample. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Doctor Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you, without fee or charge.

NOTE:—French scientists affirm that "Anurici" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children, but should be used only by grown-ups who actually wish to restore their kidneys to perfect health, by conscientiously using one box—more in extreme cases—as "Anurici" (thanks to Doctor Pierce's achievement) is by far the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector obtainable.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the original Little Liver Pills. One little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

SEES LOOT IN FRISCO ROAD REORGANIZATION

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 12.—Declaring that it had uncovered loot of $5,333,000 in the re-organization plans of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, but that it could find no legal method to prevent the alleged fraud, the Kansas Public Utilities commission granted the application of the company for permission to issue $264,000,000 worth of stock and bonds.

In an opinion handed down with its decision regarding the re-organization plans the commission explains the alleged looting methods it uncovered and charges the looting of claimants against the road by compelling them to take only a part of their due and, in some cases, stock in the company.

PRODUCE PRICES CONTINUE SOARING

Washington, Oct. 12.—Prices of farm products continue to rise. Producers were being paid 27.6 per cent more on Oct. 1 than a year ago, the department of agriculture announced in its monthly statement of the level of prices on principal crops.

The level increased 1.3 per cent during September, compared with a decrease of about 3 per cent during that month in the last eight years.

October 1 two years ago prices were 19.9 per cent lower than on that date this year and the average for the last eight years on Oct. 1 was 23.8 per cent lower.

RECORD RESOURCES SHOWN

Loss in Eastern Money Centers Offset by Deposits in Country.

Washington, Oct. 12.—A new high record for resources and deposits and a wider distribution of money than ever before will be shown by complete returns from the national bank call of September 12, in the opinion of treasury officials, after examination of figures reported by fifty-five reserve cities and country banks in several states.

Many of the big Eastern money centers have lost materially in deposits since the call of May 1, these figures show, and there has been more than an offsetting increase in smaller cities and in country districts.

Increases in country deposits are shown in the case of each of ten states from which returns are complete. Ohio leads this list with country banks showing a deposit increase of $26,000,000.

MONTANA MAY HAVE LAZY HUSBAND LAW.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 12.—Humane officers of the state are considering a proposition to submit a "lazy husband" law to the Montana legislature in January. The statute would provide that heads of families who refuse to support their wives and children will be arrested and forced to "get busy," the money they earn to be turned over to their dependents.

ITALIANS IN NEW DRIVE ON TRIESTE

Fresh Offensive Against Austrian Line Dislodges Foe.

TEUTON PORT AGAIN MENACED

Roumanians Put to Further Flight Along Transylvania Front—Fierce Fighting Between Bulgarians and Serbs Below Monastir.

London, Oct. 12.—The Italians again have taken the offensive against the Austrians in their endeavor to reach Trieste, Austria's chief port on the Adriatic.

At several points south and south-east of Gorizia the Italian forces made good progress and, in addition, took nearly 6,000 prisoners.

South of Gorizia the Austrian line was broken between Tobara and Verba, according to Rome, and on the Carso front encroachments between the Vipacco river and Hill 208 were captured. Here the town of Novavilla and a strong position around the northern part of the hill fell into the hands of the attackers. Trenches in the Trentino region also were won by the Italians and 530 Austrians were made prisoners.

Bavarians Cross Roumanian Border. In Transylvania, the forces of the Teutonic allies are continuing their drive of the Roumanians along most all of the front. Bavarian troops which captured the Rothenthurm pass have now crossed the border into Roumania. According to Bucharest, which admits the retirement of the Roumanians around Krenstadt, fierce Teutonic attacks were repulsed south of Hermannstadt with heavy casualties to the attackers.

Berlin conceded the capture by the French of a German salient near Verdun, south of the Somme river in France, and also by the British of first line trenches near Sully, north of the Somme.

Germans Enter Trenches. Violent counterattacks by the Germans on the newly captured positions of the French in the Chaulnes wood were repulsed. In the Vosges mountains the Germans invaded French trenches, but later were driven out.

On the Struma river in Greek Macedonia, the British have made a further advance, occupying the towns of Palayova and Prosenik, while the French have taken trenches on the heights west of Davedjill, which lies on the Green-Serbian border southwest of Doiran.

Fierce fighting is going on between the Bulgarians and the Serbs on the front below Monastir, the Bulgarians having received reinforcements. Berlin says that along the Cerna river and west of the Vardar entente allied attacks were repulsed.

GERMANS CUT WIRE AND TRAPPED FOE

Vienna, Oct. 12.—The recapture from the Roumanians of the Transylvanian city of Kronstadt is regarded here as having been due largely to the generalship and strategy of General von Falkenhayn, ably supported by Austro-Hungarian generals.

Von Falkenhayn was able to execute what is regarded as one of the most brilliant open field maneuvers of the war. Of the troops which assisted him special praise is given the Bavarians and the Hungarian Honveds.

The fact that the Austro-German forces were able to interrupt Roumanian telegraph and telephone communication at many points played an important part.

Telegraph lines were tapped and orders to the first Roumanian army fell into the hands of the Germans.

ALLIES AGAIN INVITE GREECE TO ENTER WAR

Athens, Oct. 12.—The entente allies again have offered to assist Greece in case she enters the war, but it is understood no new concessions have been made. It is learned that entente diplomatic circles of Athens advised the French and British chancellors, who are charged by the other allied governments with the negotiations with Greece, to reply to King Constantine's informal proposals to depart from neutrality, made to the Greek ministers in London and Paris on Sept. 18.

German Casualties Total 3,556,018.

London, Oct. 12.—German casualties from the beginning of the war to the end of September were 3,556,018, according to an official British compilation as given out here. The statement says: "A report compiled from German official casualty list shows the total German casualties in September as 179,684, bringing up the totals since the war from the same source to 3,556,018."

Discuss Action in Railway Case

BY GEORGE G. HILL.
(Written for Republican National Committee.)

Has not President Wilson won the solid support of organized labor by his handling of the railway controversy and the 8-hour bill? When the republican managers contend that Mr. Wilson has not won the support of labor do they not imply that organized labor is ungrateful? These questions are asked so frequently that a reply is pertinent.

President Wilson has not won the solid support of organized labor by his course regarding the railway increase bill because:

(1) There is no solid labor vote. Men who labor differ just as widely in their political opinions as any other class of men, so there is no solid labor vote.

(2) In the railway affair Mr. Wilson did nothing whatever to shorten the working day of railway employees, even the small percentage in the railway brotherhoods. He merely secured for the brotherhood men an increase of pay, estimated at from 20 to 25 per cent. For the great mass of railway employees he secured nothing whatever.

(3) By surrendering the principle of arbitration, Mr. Wilson established a precedent which is more than likely to work great injury to hundreds of thousands of union men whose organizations are not sufficiently powerful to win simply by strikes, although they have in the past and would have continued to win justice, or a measure of justice, by arbitration. Every labor man knows that most of that which has been won, both as to better pay and improved conditions, has been won by enlisting the support of public opinion and then procuring an arbitration which resulted in an award which, if it did not give them full justice, at least made progress in that direction.

When Mr. Wilson discarded the arbitration method of determining whether the brotherhood men were entitled to more pay, he paved the way for employers all over the country to discard it, and many able labor men believe that, regardless of the immediate benefit to the brotherhoods, organized labor will suffer in the long run from the president's course.

Finally, by leading congress to fix a specific wage increase for the brotherhood men, Mr. Wilson has paved the way for congress to fix by law the wages of all workers for common carriers with the inevitable accompaniment of compulsory service.

The answer to the second is that there is grave question whether organized labor as a whole has anything to be grateful to Mr. Wilson for.

Two Centuries Five Cents Apart

(By United Press)

El Paso, Oct. 12.—Delegates to the International Irrigation Congress, International Farm Congress and International Soil-Products Exposition, which will be held here beginning Saturday, will be given an opportunity to contrast the civilization of the 20th century which they will find in El Paso with the civilization of the 16th century which they will find in Juarez, Mexico, just across the narrow thread of the Rio Grande.

On the one side they will find the pulsating life which is the dominant feature of up-to-date Americanism; on the other they will find men and women live as they lived in Christ's time, in houses built of bricks made of mud and straw; using crooked sticks for plows and bundles of brush for harrows, reaping their grain with sickles and threshing it on earthen floors of hardened mud over which herds of ponies or flocks of goats are kept in motion in order that their hard hoofs may separate the grain from the chaff.

El Paso is practically the only city in the world where a traveler may pass in so short a time for a nickel, into a foreign country where language, manners, customs, mode of dress and styles in architecture are so absolutely different from the American conceptions of those details of life.

AWAIT REPORT OF NAVAL OFFICIALS

Lansing Says U-Boat Decision Depends on Complete Data.

KNIGHT TO MAKE REPLY SOON

Neutrality Board Will Be Consulted Before Opinion Is Given—Government Is Making Thorough Investigation of Facts.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The policy of the United States regarding the recent U-boat raid off the New England coast will not be determined until much more complete information as to facts has been received. This was announced by Secretary Lansing after his return from a conference with President Wilson.

Although the Secretary declined to elaborate on his statement, other officials indicated much will depend on Rear Admiral Knight's forthcoming report on all the naval phases of the raid, particularly the steps taken to insure the safety of passengers.

Prepare for Future.

There was every evidence Secretary Lansing went to see the president more to discuss possible eventualities and to prepare against them, than with the idea of making a definite decision.

The secretary appeared in unusually good spirits on his return.

Officials here expect the report from Rear Admiral Knight, which will be based on the statements of officers on the relief flotilla of American destroyers at the scene of the raid off Nantucket, will be ready for consideration in a few days.

It is emphasized the government is making every effort to complete its inquiry as soon as possible, but it desires to avoid a hasty or ill-advised decision.

Whether the German commander took proper care for the safety of the persons he put into small boats from the attacked vessels is a question involving points on which officials believe there is no clear precedent.

Consult Neutrality Board.

Before any policy is determined, it is expected the opinion of the neutrality board, created at the beginning of the war to advise the state department, will be consulted.

The board was called into session immediately after the U-boat appeared on this side of the Atlantic and several meetings have been held since.

There was a meeting at Long Branch between James W. Gerard, American ambassador to Germany, and Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States. The American diplomat called upon the German.

Both said the visit was informal and no significance should be attached to it.

BRITISH CAUTIOUS AT U-BOAT SILENCE

New York, Oct. 12.—Although there was no news to indicate the German submarine U-53 is lurking in the Atlantic lanes there was evidence the British admiralty will proceed with caution in allowing British ships to depart from Atlantic coast ports.

Two British vessels, due to sail, did not leave.

Shipping circles heard that Admiral Montague Browning, in command of the British fleet at Halifax, has issued orders detaining the British merchant vessels in American ports until such time as it is deemed safe for them to depart.

Continued absence of advices indicating additional submarine activities, resulted in a reduction in marine insurance rates from the high mark struck Monday. Rates were quoted at 2 1/2 per cent.

NAVY KEPT BUSY PATROLLING COAST

Newport, R. I., Oct. 12.—The American navy is taking every precaution against the use of the American coast as a base of supplies for foreign submarines.

The destroyers McCall, Porter and Cummings have gone on a mysterious mission. Rear Admiral Knight, in command of this district, was asked if the boats were searching for a submarine base or

Walter Erickson, assistant postmaster at International Falls, was ordered by Judge McClenahan to testify. In Erickson's case his office in the postoffice prohibited him from giving information until compelled by court order.

The full text of Judge McClenahan's decision will soon be given out

Base Ball Dope Mays' System

By GEORGE MARTIN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Boston, Oct. 12—As a baseball pitcher Carl Mays is a fine contor tionist.

Every pitcher is more or less a vaudeville actor in embryo, but May's performance against the Dodgers convinced your reporter that he had them all lashed to the rubber. His is perhaps the greatest system of abdominal bowknots ever known. That's why the reporter thought Mays would be a good one to ask: "Why does a pitcher wind up? I see it," we asked, "to kild the ball into more speed?"

Oh, no."

"Oh, no, the basic idea is to mystify the batter."

Braves field is trimmed in river and railways; Ebbets' field in three row flats and the week's wash.

Ebbets hates himself. He has his name draped in onyx around a mosaic baseball in the foyer floor, cast in bronze around two baseball plates on the walls to say nothing of having scattered around in other parts of the place.

A married man who saw Hank O'Day shut Bill Carrigan up, said he thought Hank was almost worth his weight in gold to try on his wife.

ture. They are surrounded by strong supporting cast, including Lester Cuneo, the well-known heavy leading man; John MacDonald, Howard, Truesdell, Harry Linkey, Harry Berkhart, H. W. Willis and Claris Selwynn.

The story of "The Masked Ride" is laid in the mountains of North Carolina, where most of the scenes were photographed. Through special arrangements the Metro players were given permission by the government to use a deserted moonshining still and rendezvous for some exciting scenes. The old Bat Cave Inn also figures prominently in this feature.

Mr. Lockwood is seen at his best in "The Masked Rider." He is given unlimited opportunity to display his prowess and horsemanship in a series of sensational situations. Miss Alphon as the mountain girl, is thoroughly at home in her part, for she is really a daughter of the southern hills. One of the spectacular scenes in the production is the dynamiting of an underground hiding place of a gang of desperate moonshiners.

In Detroit a record has been made in 100 cases, 61 boys and 33 girls, who were backward pupils. Five years after leaving school it was found that thirteen of the boys and four of the girls had been arrested at least once.

The Most Fashionable
Are the Prettiest
Afford the Most Protection

Quite contrary to Dame Fashion's usual dictates, she admits that after all there must be some logic in Fashions.

However, here we are now with great roomy coats, that envelope the figure, falling from the shoulders, or from just below the underarm. There are yards and yards of material in them, but so gracefully draped that it seems quite a usual amount.

And collars—of course there would be collars, but who would have foreseen that there would be such ample collar and cape-like effects. Yes indeed the most fashionable coats are practical.

Base Ball as She is Spoke

BY HAMILTON,

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Oct. 12—Baseball as he is spoke across the Pacific, while crude, conveys to America the fact that the national game of the United States rapidly is growing in popularity among the Australians.

A copy of the Sydney Argus, received in New York today, has half a column of its space devoted to baseball games, the details of several contests being included.

If one is to take the word of the Argus' writer for it, professional baseball in America and the amateur brand in Australia are widely separated.

"The Collingswood-Hawthorn game was a splendid fight for five innings," the Argus reporter writes, and continues: "But Hawthorn's sixth brought 5 runs and they won by 10 runs to 6. Martin, the Hawthorns pitcher, struck out 14 batters and did some good hitting."

"Richmond turned the tables on South Melbourne, and won by 27 runs to 6. Anderson, the southern pitcher, in adding to third base struck his head against the base, and the shaking affected his pitching. Brereton, who had played a magnificent game at shortstop, took up the attack, but could not hold the Richmond batsmen, who accounted for twenty-three base hits, to which Eastman contributed four."

They have a league in Australia for the Argus writer speaks of it in recounting a game between the Northcotes and the Y. M. C. A. He compares this contest with a cricket match. Forty-three hits were made by one of the teams, forty-three runs made, and thirty-six bases stolen. The opposing team failed to get a runner past second base, something of a tribute to the advance of the game.

"Williamstown hit up six runs in their first inning," the Argus explains in remarks of another contest. "The M. C. C. pitcher held the seafishers comparatively quiet thereafter, as he struck out seven batsmen."

The visit of the White Sox and Giants to the far-off continent has had its effect. Baseball is being given more attention in Australia than in any foreign country, and recently a letter was written to Garry Herman, president of the National baseball commission in the United States asking interpretation of some of the rules. Reports from the Antipodians say efforts are being made to organize a league of professional clubs.

More Block Signals For N. P.

The Northern Pacific railway will soon increase its main line automatic block signal system, the number of miles to be added being 216. These signals, of the latest improved type, will be installed between Mandan, N. D., and Glendive, Mont. About 1260 of the 1,949 miles of main line trackage between Duluth, Superior, St. Paul, Minneapolis and the North Pacific coast are now equipped with these automatic safety devices. The Northern Pacific railway ranks fourth among railways of the United States in mileage protected by block signals, and first among railways operating through the northwest. Because of this fact it has an enviable record for absence of accidents and comfort to travelers who ride on its trains.

BRAINERD'S OLDEST STORIES TODAY

This one is on Theodore Miller of the M. & I. offices. Mr. Miller was hunting ducks at Gull lake, and carefully inspecting the shore line, saw a lot of them feeding. Carefully resting his trusty gun on a stump, he fired expecting to bring down three anyway. There was a roar of his gun, but not a duck toppled over, or flew away. Shortly afterwards the bushes parted violently and two angry bellerakers appeared on the scene.

"Why are you shooting at our deacons?" they yelled.

"I was after some wood duck," said Miller.

Today Miller and his friend, Oscar Erickson, went to Stanley, far from the wooden duck belt and they expect to bring some real ones home.

"Don't spell my name 'Jeph'," said Jep Thompson. "Drop the 'H,'" said he.

"If I was a real Englishman the 'H' would have been dropped," said the reporter.

Tom Wood has a scrap book in which he keeps mentions made of him. The other evening he had, Wm. Wood, flourished the Dispatch and showed the story at the top of the column wherein he had commented on Jack Coombs and he said:

"Guess I'll have to start a scrap book too."

Today the Bemidji Pioneer got some news about Bobby Larson, son of the Carter-Larson Auto service, and they wired in: "Was Bobby Larson killed today?" And the reply sent read "Bobby Larson not killed. Denied it himself."

London, biggest city of the world, has also abandoned street fighting, that is, while the Zepelins continue to fly around and drop torpedoes on them.

"RIGHT OFF THE BAT"

LIVE SPORT NOTES BY A FAN

The remarkable strength of the Boston pitching staff again manifested itself yesterday and the big series is all over but the shouting and the formality of playing off the remaining game. The defensive ability of the winners also showed to good advantage and, coupled with air-tight pitching, the combination is a hard thing to beat. Dutch Leonard again proved himself a great money pitcher and was never in danger after the first inning, allowing but five hits for the entire game. The Cubs was not so fortunate and was not as effective as on his first attempt to stop the flying Red Sox.

The substitution of Gainer for Gardner seemed to wake up the latter player, and he has contributed a home run each in Tuesday's and yesterday's games. His circuit clout yesterday put the Sox back into the running.

The last card left for Robinson to play seems to be the starting of Pfeffer in the box for the Dodgers, however, the chance is a very small one with Shore and Ruth and Foster waiting for the call from Carrigan. There seems to be nothing to it but Boston.

One doesn't have to wait up for the midnight trains to get all the inside dope on the big series and the service rendered by the Brainerd Dis-

MR. GARVEY A NOTED CHEF

With the Ransford Hotel Over 6 Years, Saulpaugh of Mankato, West Hotel Minneapolis

Men may live without books and many luxuries, but no one can get along without a cook, and when such a cook is the finest kind of a chef Brainerd may consider itself lucky to retain here one of the greatest chefs of the northwest, Wm. J. Garvey, now engaged by The Ideal.

Mr. Garvey was chef six and a half years at the Ransford hotel in Brainerd, five years with the West Hotel of Minneapolis, also with Regan & Co., of Minneapolis and recently with the "Saulpaugh" of Dixon & Son at Mankato.

Mr. Garvey resides in Brainerd and has a pleasant home at 615 South Sixth street. His engagement at the Ideal will enable him to stay here and to give his best in the culinary art to the local world.

His many friends wish him success. E. E. Darling, chef preceding him, has accepted a position in International Falls.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Bemidji High Football Team Will Play Wadena at Wadena Saturday, Lloyd Tanner Stars (Bemidji Daily Pioneer)

The Bemidji high school football team will journey to Wadena next Saturday for a game with the high school eleven. The Wadena eleven had a "scout" watching the Bemidji-Akeley game last Saturday. Wadena has a strong team and it is believed that the game will be very close. A large crowd of Bemidji rooters are planning to accompany the team to Wadena.

Lloyd Tanner, formerly of Bemidji, now attending the Little Falls high school, starred in the game between the Little Falls high school eleven and Aitkin, Saturday. Little Falls won by a score of 46 to 6. Tanner played left halfback, called signals and handled the team well. He was one of the best ground gainers and broke away several times for long gains of 40 to 50 yards.

ONE GOOD EFFECT NOTED

Submarine Raid Prevents Increase in Flour Price.

St. Paul, Oct. 12.—"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," according to the old saying. St. Paul flour dealers say that the submarine raid on ships off the United States Atlantic coast warded off another jump in the price of flour and that the jump would have come in a few days if the prospect of losing some of the export trade had not intervened.

The present price of flour charged by most mills is $8.80 a barrel, with two of the standard brands bringing $9 a barrel. The same flour now selling at $9 a barrel was selling at $5.50 a barrel in October last year.

patch is nothing short of excellent, and it is greatly appreciated by local fans. On every side you can hear remarks passed that are highly complimentary to our leading daily.

The football authorities, it is rumored, are contemplating a world's series between Tufts and Carleton.

The many friends of Arnold Randall will be glad to hear his chances for recovery are fairly good; however, a serious operation is an absolute necessity. Seven X-ray photographs were taken of his back and it was found that a bone is shattered and is pressing against his spinal nerve, and his stomach organs have become paralyzed. "Boots" has hundreds of friends in Brainerd who are hoping that the operation proves a success and that his complete recovery will be the ultimate result.

Next year, look out for the New York Giants. With a series between them and the Red Sox, you could take your pick and would most likely guess wrong. The Giants have a powerful pitching staff, a great fielding team throughout, and lots of punch in their hitting strength, and so have the Red Sox, so there you are. It looks like either the White Sox or Red Sox against the Giants next year, but you never can tell. Dame Fortune is very fickle and that old luck thing plays a great part in a season's campaign.

SLOCUM NEED NOT TESTIFY

L. H. Slocum, county auditor of Koochiching county, cannot be compelled to testify before M. J. Brown, of Bemidji, commissioner appointed by Governor J. A. A. Burnquist to probe county finances.

Judge W. S. McClenahan, of the district court, so decided Wednesday afternoon after hearing the case.

Walter Erickson, assistant postmaster at International Falls, was ordered by Judge McClenahan to testify. In Erickson's case his office in the postoffice prohibited him from giving information until compelled by court order.

The full text of Judge McClenahan's decision will soon be given out.

Base Ball Dope Mays' System

By GEORGE MARTIN

United Press Staff Correspondent
Boston, Oct. 12.—As a baseball pitcher Carl Mays is a fine contortionist.

Every pitcher is more or less a vaudeville actor in embryo, but Mays' performance against the Dodgers convinced your reporter that he has them all lashed to the rubber. His is perhaps the greatest system of abdominal bowknots ever known. That's why the reporter thought Mays would be a good one to ask: "Why does a pitcher wind up? Is it," we asked, "to kid the ball into more speed?"

Oh, no.

"Do you lift your leg and wrap your arm around your neck for the fun?"

"Oh, no, the basic idea is to mystify the batter."

Braves field is trimmed in rivers and railways; Ebbets' field in three row flats and the week's wash.

Ebbets hates himself. He has his name draped in onyx around a mosaic baseball in the foyer floor, cast in bronze around two baseball plates on the walls to say nothing of having it scattered around in other parts of the place.

Does Jack Coombs follow the flag, or does it follow him?

A married man who saw Hank O'Day shot Bill Carrigan up, said he thought Hank was almost worth hiring to try on his wife.

At the Best Tonight

Harold Lockwood and May Allison, the popular Metro-Quinty stars, will be seen on the screen here at the Best theatre tonight in "The Masked Rider," a thrilling five-part production of mystery, romance and adventure. They are surrounded by a strong supporting cast, including Lester Cuneo, the well-known heavy leading man; John MacDonald, Howard, Truesdell, Harry Linkey, Harry Berkhart, H. W. Willis and Clarissa Selwyn.

The story of "The Masked Rider" is laid in the mountains of North Carolina, where most of the scenes were photographed. Through special arrangements the Metro players were given permission by the government to use a deserted moonshining still and rendezvous for some exciting scenes. The old Bat Cave Inn also figures prominently in this feature.

Mr. Lockwood is seen at his best in "The Masked Rider." He is given unlimited opportunity to display his prowess and horsemanship in a score of sensational situations. Miss Allison as the mountain girl, is thoroughly at home in her part, for she is in reality a daughter of the southland. One of the spectacular scenes in the production is the dynamiting of an underground hiding place of a gang of desperate moonshiners.

Frank Gotch on the Stump.

Stout City, Ia., Oct. 12.—Frank Gotch, wrestler, will campaign for W. L. Harding for governor of Iowa, it was announced at Harding headquarters here. Gotch will accompany Harding on his tour, making speeches from the same platforms.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Louis Baker, a baker, was slugged when he refused to raise the price of his bread. Members of the bakers' association are charged with the slugging. Police are guarding Mr. Baker's bakery shop.

Cyclone Sweeps Island.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Oct. 12.—A cyclone swept over St. Thomas with disastrous results. Almost every building in the city was damaged and some were destroyed. There are many homeless persons.

Backward Pupils.

In Detroit a record has been made of 100 cases. 61 boys and 39 girls, who were backward pupils. Five years after leaving school it was found that thirteen of the boys and four of the girls had been arrested at least once.

The Most Fashionable
Are the Prettiest
Afford the Most Protection

Quite contrary to Dame Fashion's usual dictates, she admits that after all there must be some logic in fashions.

However, here we are now with great roomy coats, that envelope the figure, falling from the shoulders, or from just below the underarm. There are yards and yards of material in them, but so gracefully draped that it seems quite a usual amount.

And collars—of course there would be collars, but who would have foreseen that there would be such ample collar and cape like effects. Yes indeed the most fashionable coats are practical.

Base Ball as She is Spoke

BY HAMILTON

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Oct. 12.—Baseball as she is spoke across the Pacific, while crude, conveys to America the fact that the national game of the United States rapidly is growing in popularity among the Australians.

A copy of the Sydney Argus, received in New York today, has half a column of its space devoted to baseball games, the details of several contests being included.

If one is to take the word of the Argus' writer for it, professional baseball in America and the amateur brand in Australia are widely separated.

"The Collingswood-Hawthorn game was a splendid fight for five innings," the Argus reporter writes, and continues: "But Hawthorn's sixth brought 5 runs and they won by 10 runs to 6. Martin, the Hawthorne pitcher, struck out 14 batters and did some good hitting."

Speaking of another game, he says: "Richmond turned the tables on South Melbourne, and won by 23 runs to 6. Anderson, the southern pitcher, in sliding to third base, struck his head against the base, and the shaking affected his pitching. Brereton, who had played a magnificent game at shortstop, took up the attack, but could not hold the Richmond batsmen, who accounted for twenty-three base hits, to which Eastman contributed four."

They have a league in Australia, for the Argus writer speaks of it in recounting a game between the Northcoates and the Y. M. C. A. He compares this contest with a cricket match. Forty-three hits were made by one of the teams, forty-three runs made, and thirty-six bases stolen. The opposing team failed to get a runner past second base, something of a tribute to the advance of the game.

"Williamstown hit up six runs in their first inning," the Argus expert remarks of another contest. "The M. C. C. pitcher held the sealders comparatively quiet thereafter, as he struck out seven batsmen."

The visit of the White Sox and Giants to the far-off continent has had its effect. Baseball is being given more attention in Australia than in any foreign country, and recently a letter was written to Garry Herrman, president of the National baseball commission in the United States, asking interpretation of some of the rules. Reports from the Antipodes say efforts are being made to organize a league of professional clubs.
